DOG DAYS: Thanks to the generosity of the congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church, some of the cost of providing Acton's Austin Daleman with a service dog, Cruiser, will be paid with the coins donated to the Kim Petty Memorial Fund. Austin and his mom Patricia gratefully accepted the donation from Knox member John Watson on Sunday. - George Henderson photos

Literacy matters

The holiday season is upon us, which means that kids and parents get a much-needed break from school and work. While it's a busy time of year and there's always lots to do, families can keep learning in fun ways, which promoting family bonding while ensuring everyone's mind is sharp come January.

With Family Literacy Day around the corner on January 27, 2012, the Adult Learning Centre (Literacy North Halton) is recruiting for volunteer tutors part-time for both daytime and evenings. We are looking for adults who can as-

Would you like to volunteer to help people improve their literacy skills, or make a donation to your local literacy organization?

Interested in becoming a volunteer tutor? The Adult Learning Centre (Literacy North Halton) is recruiting for volunteer tutors part-time for both daytime and evenings. We are looking for adults who can assist another adult with reading, writing, math or basic computer skills.

If you would like to give something back to your community and can volunteer for 3 hours per week for a minimum of six months, please call the number below to make an appointment.
