New show heads to John Elliott Theatre

Opening next month at the John Elliott Theatre is the musical comedy, How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying, by Frank Loesse.

The musical follows the progression of young J. Pierrepont Finch and his change in lifestyle from the classy window washer to the chairman of the World Wide Wicket Company.

Finch experiences a whole new world with the help of his book, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying.

His goal is to climb the corporate ladder by influencing the decisions of his backstabbing coworkers, and claim his rightful spot as a high-powered executive.

But what would a show be without obstacles, and in Finch's case, true love.

Not many musicals can claim to be Pulitzer Prize winners. How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying is one of only nine musicals that have won this prestigious award.

It shares this distinction with shows such as Hamilton, Rent and A Chorus Line.

Tickets are now available at the John Elliott Theatre box office or online at globe productions.ca. How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying runs Nov. 18-27.
