MORTGAGES
B LENDERS

I am buying a new home, my Mortgage Broker wants me to use a mortgage Company I have never heard of (a B Lender) rather than my Bank. Should I be concerned?

HALC-Acton hosting breakfast for dinner at next social dinner

One hundred and three ladies and three men enjoyed watching the models show off the beautiful clothes from Alia Fashions.

Yvonne the assistant manager of the TanJay and Alia in Milton, worked behind the scenes and Linda her associate did a great job of describing each outfit. The program committee served cake, tea and coffee following the show.

Thirty-four ladies enjoyed shopping at St. Jacobs Market and later lunch at Crossroads. It was a warm, sunny day and everywhere looked lovely with the leaves changing colour. It always makes you feel you have stepped back in time when you see the Mennonites with their horse drawn buggies driving along the roads in the area and at the market. I am now thinking that perhaps we could visit the St. Lawrence Market in Toronto in early spring followed by a visit to the Dixie Mall on the way home. If we choose a Saturday we won't have to be in a rush to get back to Acton for the driver to complete their bus run.

Bingo lovers, it is the Hillsview monthly evening Bingo on Saturday Oct. 15 at 7 p.m. I understand that every week more people join us to enjoy the evening. Last month there was a record amount of players.

The Friday morning hikers are meeting in the car park on Oct. 14 at 10 a.m. and carpooling to Hungry Hollow, Georgetown for a Fall hike along the trail. Town Senior Landscape Architect Mark Taylor will be talking about the plants, trees and wildlife in the area as you walk along the trail.

Our next social dinner will be on Monday, Oct. 17 and by popular request will be a Pyjama Party. You will enjoy breakfast for dinner plus a surprise dessert.

Several weeks ago Pauline Barlow celebrated a very special 85th birthday with a dance at the Legion. Instead of gifts she asked for donations to Hillsview, Acton. Last week she brought in well over $500. A generous gesture! Thanks Pauline.

For the third week in a row the person whose name was pulled had added their loonie and their name to the draw. Shirley Broostad was the lucky winner. She won $69.50.

EARN up to $30000!
