Head for the Hills raises $15,000 for Food4Kids

The Georgetown Club Race Festival was a sold-out event again for the 20th year, with an income to allow $15,000 to be paid out to 5,000 local kids.

The day was a great one when people were asking how much money would be put back into our community. "While it is too soon to say exactly what the total was, the clubs are happy to announce that their $15,000 contribution to the local beneficiary, Food4Kids, is already out."

Eric Probst of Food4Kids Supply accepted the donation.

But in sending out a huge thank you for your continued support of Food4Kids, the fund-raised event for you a best both of will host 11 children for the entire school year in our community of Halton Hills. Truly amazing!

Head for the Hills is a joint effort managed by four Georgetown service clubs (Kiwanis, Rotaract, Rotary and Kiwanis). After the donation to Food4Kids, the remaining funds are split between the clubs to support all the good work that they do in this community.
