Local resident Gary Klutt reached a milestone by being chosen to participate in the Canadian NASCAR Camping World Truck race earlier this fall.

The father-Cherokee Silverado SS owner, who writes under the name Gary Klutt, is a member of the Camping World Truck race's elite because it is one of the only professional truck race events in Canada.

The 40-year-old, who lives in Huron, Ontario, is a professional driver and has competed in several NASCAR events. He is currently competing in the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series, which is the only professional truck race series in Canada.

Local trio on Team Ontario

Three graduates of the North Huron Girls Hockey Association have been selected to represent Team Ontario at the upcoming Women's Under-18 Nationals in Regina, Sask.

Forward Sarah Miller and Elizabeth Mead, along with defender Wighton Horne, will play alongside the four senior Ontario key players from across the province for the U-18 girls' team tournament.

The 16-year-old Miller is a defenceman in the Provincial Women's Hockey League, where she has scored 11 goals and eight assists for the Oakville Hornets, who are currently the Ontario U-18 girls' team.

Miller, 11, also plays a prominent role for the Hornets and has contributed three goals and three assists.

Horne was also selected to play for the Ontario U-18 girls' team. She is currently competing in the Ontario U-18 girls' team.
