Halloween haunts around Halton Hills

Acton High School: Drop into Acton High's Haunted House with $2 or two non-perishable food items on October 28. Profits go to Acton's Food Share and to AHS Me-to-We club.

The event runs from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the AHS Drama Room. Be prepared to shriek your socks off! Be warned however, as this experience is not recommended for children shorter than a witch's broomstick. Note: strobe lights, fog machines, and loud noises are all part of the haunted house experience.

The public is invited to drop in to the Mountainview Residence & Terrace Halloween Night for the annual Haunt & Treat fesactivities in which residents will be handing out treats to visitors.

An elaborate Haunted House has been decorated for the event and trick-or-treaters are welcome between 5:30-6:30 p.m.

A most-popular-pumpkin contest is also taking place, featuring a Trumpkin.

On Tuesday, Bob Allison of Allison's Farm Market in Halton Hills dropped off the biggest pumpkin yet for the Mountainview Residence's Haunt & Treat at 626 pounds.

Haunted Houses are also being showcased at addresses 63 Gollap Cres., Georgetown, 21 Serenity St., Georgetown, and 218 Christie St., Rockwood.

This Rotary-sponsored event is held annually to celebrate and show our community's appreciation for the seniors in our town. This is the 62nd year that the Seniors' dinner has been held, and as a service club, provides one of the highlights of our year of community activities. As usual, we will be taking orders for Brandt Christmas hams at the dinner - the proceeds of which support our Rotary club's international service projects.
