Halton Hills celebrates Bike Challenge

Thanks to the awesome effort of nearly 1,900 participants in the 2016 Halton Hills Bike Challenge the goal of riding 400,000 kilometres was achieved and $85,000 was raised for the Georgetown Hospital Foundation.

My congratulations to Councillor Jane Fogal and the rest of the team on this outstanding achievement, said Mayor Rick Bonnette. Every year this group raises the bar and sets an even more ambitious target and every year you deliver. Thank you on behalf of all town residents for making our community stronger.

Everyone is welcome to join the organizing team on Saturday, Nov. 5 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre/Georgetown Library. Everyone is invited to attend and celebrate the community's achievement.

The program and cheque presentations will be at 1:30 p.m., followed by cake and refreshments.

More details can be found at: www.haltonhills.ca/Cycling-Events/index.php

Town engineering staff will also be on hand to show what is planned around new town cycling infrastructure and to hear your suggestions for improving safety and the enjoyment of cycling in Halton Hills.

There are new rules for drivers and cyclists in Ontario. Halton Regional Police will be available to talk about these changes and reinforce safe cycling practices for all cyclists of all ages and abilities.

The town is also looking for input for the Georgetown Actions Sports Needs Assessment, such as, what facilities should be built to keep our youth active and healthy? Think skateboard, BMX, Scooters, basketball, etc.

Residents can talk to town staff about it on Nov. 5.

More information can be found at www.haltonhills.ca/actionsports

There will be a free draw for prizes as well as free bike bells and lights while supplies last.

Bring the whole family. Everyone is welcome.
