

The King will strum his Christmas tunes in Acton

Local residents will soon get an early dose of the holiday spirit when the King of Rock and Roll brings his Christmas tunes to Halton Hills.

One of North America's top Elvis tribute artists, Steve Michaels, is set to hit the stage at Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton for his Wonderful World of Christmas concert on Saturday, Nov. 5.

The concert will include holiday classics, Elvis' most famous Christmas carols and other songs of inspiration.

Milton native Michaels, better known locally as Stephen Kabakos, has been performing as the King of Rock and Roll for almost 20 years.

Over the past two decades he's been recognized as one of the most authentic Elvis tribute artists around, earning him international awards, fame and praise.

That global appeal is what led to a recent change in his stage name as many international fans struggled with the last name Kabakos.

While he may be performing with a slightly different moniker now, Michaels will undoubtedly deliver the same high-quality, memorable experience that local audiences have enjoyed for the past several years.

The concert starts at 7:30 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church, located at 44 Main St. N., Acton. Tickets cost $40 each and are available to purchase by calling 519-853-2360 or 519-856-9981. Refreshments will be served following the concert. For more information on Michaels and his work, visit www.stephenkabakos.com.
