Pedestrian killed in Georgetown train collision

A pedestrian struck by a train last Wednesday afternoon (Oct. 26) in northwest Georgetown was pronounced dead on scene.

Halton Regional Police received calls at about 2:20 p.m. about a collision between a pedestrian and an eastbound freight train in the area of Main St. N. and Carruthers Rd.

No further information about the victim will be released.

Investigators from CN Police and the Halton Regional Po-lice's Collision Reconstruction Unit were on the scene for several hours.

The collision did not occur at a level crossing and there are no suspicious circumstances surrounding the fatality, Halton Police said.

Anyone who witnessed this collision or has additional information are asked to contact the On Duty Staff Sergeant for 1 District at 905-878-5511 ext. 2405. The Halton Police's CRU took carriage of the investigation.
