Brampton man charged in Canadian Tire firearms theft

A 36-year-old man is facing a half-dozen charges following the theft of firearms from the Canadian Tire in Georgetown and an attempted break-and-enter at another of the national retailer's stores in Brampton in September.

Peel Regional Police responded to a call of a break-and-enter in progress on Sept. 23 at the Canadian Tire location at McLaughlin Rd. and Bovaird Dr., apprehending a suspect.

Further investigation linked the accused to the alleged theft of seven long guns from the Canadian Tire on Guelph St. in Georgetown in the early-morning hours of Sept. 11.

The stolen firearms have not been recovered.

Charged with break and enter, two counts of possession of break-in instruments, possession of property obtained by crime, break and enter to commit and indictable offence and breach of a probation order is Jose DeGuzman of Brampton.
