Fifth Avenue Collection to visit HALC-Acton

By Julie Conroy

Hillsview Active Living Centre-Acton

On Oct. 25, following breakfast at the Centre, 20 members of the Hillsview Men's Group had a tour of the new Emergency department at the Georgetown Hospital.

They were very impressed with their tour and would like to thank Mary McPherson and the staff for an excellent presentation and tour.

Many people attended the Halloween Dance on Oct. 28. The music was great and everyone enjoyed checking out the costumes, even trying to guess who some people were. Dave Maloney won the prize for the best men's costume, and Pat Irwin won for the ladies. There was also a prize for the most ingenious homemade costume which was won by Eileen Dix as Chaplin.

Have you seen the prizes displayed in the lounge for the penny table for the Christmas Fair? As usual Marj McDonough has outdone herself with the beautiful items displayed. Many people spend a couple of dollars each week trying to make sure they win the item they have their eye on. Many of them would make perfect gifts for someone for Christmas.

Thinking of gifts, the Fifth Avenue Collection of beautiful jewellery will be at the Centre on Tuesday, Nov. 15 from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. in the Lunch on Nov. 11 will be chicken pot pie and potatoes.

Bev Bailie was happy to hear she had won the weekly 50/50 She won $192.50.
