Two bodies pulled from Mississauga pond

By Pam Douglas

Police have recovered two bodies from a north Mississauga pond where the car belonging to two missing Oakville brothers was found submerged

Tuesday night.

Police say they have not yet positively identified the victims and more information will come later this morning about who found the submerged car, and how.

Hamza Khan, 22, and Shahrukira Khan, 20, have been missing since 9:15 p.m. Friday, last seen in the area of Thomas Street and Tenth Line in Mississauga. The car, a silver BMW, was pulled from a pond a short distance away from there, at the intersection where Thomas Street ends at Ninth Line.

It's the second time this year a car has been pulled from the pond. In June, a muscle car plunged into the water after crashing through the fence. The driver notified police the next day. He was not injured.
