

Halton police warn store owners of money-switching scam

Halton police are warning the public of a petty scam that is targeting stores in Burlington.

In two instances, a man walked into a store first a Shoppers Drug Mart and then a variety store and approached the cash register to purchase a pack of candy with a $20 bill.

Then, while the cashier was making change, he said he'd pay with coins instead. The distracted cashier did not notice when the man got an extra $20 back.

The person was arrested and charged with two counts of fraud. Police believe there may be more victims who are unaware they were scammed, or who didn't bother to report the incident at the time.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Const. Michael Garvey at 30 Division in Burlington at 905-825-4747 ext. 2305, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS).
