"ELVIS: BLUE CHRISTMAS" SHOW COMES TO GEORGETOWN THEATRE

The incredible Gino Monopoli stars in "Elvis: Blue Christmas" when it comes to the John Elliott Theatre

"I'll have a Blue Christmas, without you... I'll be so blue, just thinking about you..."

Of course, many music fans today can still recall these classic lyrics from the Elvis Presley song "Blue Christmas", which topped the record charts back in 1957. Of course, in addition to this tune "The King of Rock & Roll" scored an incredible number of smash hits during his career from the 1950's to the 1970's, including "Jailhouse Rock" "Hound Dog" "Don't Be Cruel" amongst many other fan favourites.

On Saturday December 10th at 8pm, the music and life of Elvis Presley will be celebrated in a special Christmas show hosted at the intimate John Elliott Theatre in Halton Hills. "Elvis: Blue Christmas" stars Gino Monopoli in the title role, backed by the amazing Memphis Cats Band, and features Elvis Christmas classics combined with 25 hit songs spanning the entire career of the music legend. Local Elvis fans will be in for a real treat, as Gino is widely regarded as one of the most internationally acclaimed Elvis Tribute Artists on the circuit today. He's been awarded with numerous prestigious titles including "Collingwood Grand Champion", has performed in Las Vegas and Memphis, and been featured on CNN, ABC, NBC, BBC and the Bravo television network.

The show will be divided into two parts, with the first portion of the show dedicated to Elvis' early Rock & Roll career and songs such as "That's Alright Mama" "All Shook Up" and "Love Me". The second half of the show reaches into the latter portion of his career including such hits as "Suspicious Minds" and "Are You Lonesome Tonight" amongst the classics. Christmas classics to be performed include "Blue Christmas" "Santa Bring My Baby Back" and "White Christmas". Gino Monopoli performs all the songs with high energy and a high level of audience interaction. His world-class tribute show truly captures both the look and voice of Elvis Presley.

Food4Kids receives $4,700 through second Fitness Fundraiser

The second-annual Food4Kids Fitness Fundraiser was held last month by Dynamic Bodies and the effort raised $4,700.

Dynamic Bodies trainers offered a full day of free fitness classes (TRX, Kickboxing, Barre, Yoga and Pilates) and gathered prizes from local companies that were raffled off to raise money for the Food4Kids program.

We feel that we are given so much by the wonderful people in our community, who allow us to help them through their health and fitness journey, that we want to give back to our community, and no better way than to help the children, said Carrie Muscat, Dynamic Bodies owner & trainer.

Food4Kids provides a weekend supply of healthy foods to ensure at-risk children have access to nutritious meals at home. Currently in Georgetown & Acton (Halton North) Food4Kids feeds 61 children.
