

Celebrate With Glowing Hearts this Friday

The Halton Hills Concert Band (HHCBB) is excited to present the fifth-annual With Glowing Hearts Musical Tribute to the Armed Forces on Friday, Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at Christ The King Catholic Secondary School.

Come on out and enjoy a variety of music, including popular TV and movie music and classic swing tunes, performed against the backdrop of powerful visuals designed to remember and celebrate the Armed Forces.

Band president Roper Galloway and director Daniella Baryla will present the original show that brings the pomp of the military tattoo to a concert setting with a Colour Guard of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120, the 676 Lorne Scots Royal Canadian Army Cadets and the 756 Royal Canadian Air Cadets.

There is no other show like it in the province, so join us for an entertaining night out.

Tickets are $20 for adults; $15 for Seniors over 65/students; Children 12 and under are free.

Light refreshments are included and are provided courtesy of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120.

Tickets are available at:

- J.V. Clothing, Market Place Mall
- Miller's Scottish Bakery, 330 Guelph St.
- Georgetown School of Highland Dancing
- Glen Oven Cafe, 20 Main St., Glen Williams

My cohabitation agreement is not enforceable. Do I need a lawyer?

Our lawyers provide legal advice and representation in all areas of family law, including cohabitation agreements, common-law relationships, and property division. We help our clients understand their rights and obligations, and we ensure that their legal interests are protected. Our experienced lawyers provide a high level of service and attention to detail, and we are committed to achieving the best possible outcome for our clients.

It is important to have a clear and enforceable cohabitation agreement in place before you enter into a common-law relationship. Our lawyers can help you draft a comprehensive agreement that covers all the important issues, such as property, debts, and children. We will work with you to ensure that your agreement is fair and equitable, and that it is enforceable in court.
