Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) Halton officially kicked off its Red Ribbon Campaign this week.

The campaign runs from Nov. 1 to Jan. 2 and aims to bring awareness to the dangers of impaired driving during a time of heightened concern due to holiday parties and events.

Across the country, Canadians are asked to tie a MADD Canada red ribbon to a vehicle, backpack, purse, key chain or briefcase.

This symbolizes a commitment to drive sober during the holiday season and throughout the year.

It also serves as a tribute to the victims of impaired driving.
