When a young window-washer named J. Pierrpont Ponty Finch finds a book entitled How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, his life changes overnight.

Like a diabolical genie's lamp, this book helps him take aim at the office politics in the sixties, hacking down the careers of those in his way.

Before long, Ponty leaves his window-washing career in the dust and launches onto a path to ultimate power. But is he prepared to be blindsided by love? He isn't counting on the scheming of a certain secretary extraordinaire, Rosemary Pilkington.

How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying won the Pulitzer Prize, as well as the Tony Award for Best Musical. It gleefully plots a course for its young hero that most of us would never attempt to do. Although set in the sixties, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying is current in its theme of clawing up the corporate ladder by eliminating those in the way.

Ponty's scheming and backstabbing will infiltrate the John Elliot Theatre in Georgetown on Nov. 18-19, 24-26 at 8 p.m. and Nov. 20 and 27 at 2 p.m. Tickets can be purchased in advance at the box office or online at globe productions.ca
