

Andrews Scenic Acres sells

After 37 seasons in operation, Bert and Lauraine Andrews are thrilled to move on to a new chapter in their lives with the assurance that their beloved business will keep its name and remain a popular destination.

A family from Oakville has purchased the 626-acre operation, which includes the popular Scotch Block Winery, along with hundreds of varieties of fruits and vegetables available for purchase.

We're keeping everything the same, said incoming general manager Linda Chen.

The Andrews purchased the 100-acre run-down property in 1980 from a man who had come to the realization that he wouldn't get approval to build a golf course on the site.

Located on 10 Sideroad just east of Hwy. 25, Bert and Lauraine initially intended to operate a pick-your-own berry farm. Before the dilapidated main barn at the time could be pulled down to make room for the current structure, it collapsed on itself.

We've been looking to find a buyer for a few years who wanted to carry on the business and we're happy with how it's gone. We can move on and it's still here, said Bert.

Lauraine said she's not thinking of anything to do beyond the Dec. 15 closing date for the sale, although Bert confides that the couple, their three adult children and their kids are going on a week's vacation to Aruba at some point soon.

The Andrews have purchased a bungalow in nearby Brookville and plan to stay active in the agriculture business with some small cash crops in Halton Hills.
