Blue Fins celebrate seasons best

The Georgetown Indoor Pool was recently abuzz with young talent ready and pumped to race in the annual Blue and White Swim Meet, which marks the beginning of the season for the Halton Hills Blue Fins.

Watching the success of the Canadian Swim team at the Rio Olympics has inspired a new generation of children to jump in with both feet to the sport of competitive swimming. Enrolment in swimming is up substantially across the country and Halton Hills is no exception.

Mike Thompson, head coach of Para swimming ITP Quebec, was recently the guest speaker at the Blue Fins Awards Banquet held at Eagle Ridge Golf Club.

Awards were presented to swimmers of all age groups for outstanding swimming accomplishments and team spirit.
