Acton artist showcases work at Roxy's

Having resided in Acton for almost 40 years, Elizabeth Bard prides herself as being a local artist.

After retirement, she pursued art as a second career and received High Honours with her Fine Arts Diploma from Sheridan College and a Fine Arts Certificate from Haldimilton School of the Arts, which are only two of her many artistic accomplishments.

Her love of nature and the environment prompted her most recent art display, now showing at Roxy's in Acton. The experience, titled Indangered Pollinator, consists of bees, butterflies and florals.

Her exhibit is featured at Roxy's Coffee Shop at 6 Mill St., Acton. The show is Tuesday-Friday at 8 a.m. and Saturdays 9 a.m.-5 p.m. until Dec. 5.

legal matters | ESTATES & TRUSTS

Q: Can I make an estate plan with my partner if we are not married?

A: Yes, on occasion, a person who is not married can create an estate plan. This is often done through a will, which is a legal document that outlines how a person's assets should be distributed after their death. A will can be created by a single person or a couple, and it can be updated or revised at any time. It is important to consult with a legal professional to ensure that the will is properly drafted and executed. Other options include joint tenancy with right of survivorship, which allows a person to own property with their partner, and the use of trusts to hold and manage assets for the benefit of the surviving partner.
