Three drivers facing charges after traffic stops

Halton Regional Police embarked on Project Juno on Thursday, targeting impaired drivers in the region, which resulted in charges laid against a Georgetown man early Saturday evening.

Officers were conducting a mobile Reduce Impaired Driving Everywhere (RIDE) program on Main St. N. in Georgetown when a black Dodge pick-up truck was spotted being driven erratically, the police report stated.

The vehicle was pulled over in the area of Carnaby and Tiffany Lns. The officer spoke with the driver and developed grounds to believe the accused had consumed alcohol, police allege.

Charged with impaired driving and operating a motor vehicle with more than 80 mg of alcohol in 100ml of blood is Luke Van Veen, 39.

Police conducted a traffic stop on a white Ford pick-up truck after it left a downtown Georgetown bar Friday just after 6 p.m.

Following an investigation, a charge of operating a motor vehicle with more than 80 mg of alcohol in 100ml of blood was laid, police said. Charged is Corey Martin, 46, of Georgetown.

The accused's licence was automatically suspended for 90 days and his vehicle seized for one week.

A Brampton driver is facing an alcohol-related charge after being stopped by a Halton Regional Police officer early Thursday morning on Trafalgar Rd. in Halton Hills for a Highway Traffic Act offence.

Charged with operating a motor vehicle with more than 80 mg of alcohol in 100ml of blood is Inderjit Gurm, 39.
