Police vow to continue targeting impaired drivers in Halton

By Julia Le
Metroland Media Group

Halton police have made a number of impaired driving arrests in the last week, including a 25-year-old man in Oakville.

On Sunday (Nov. 27), a citizen called police to report a suspected impaired driver. Responding officers located the vehicle in a drive-thru of an Oakville restaurant. Police allege the driver displayed signs of impairment and was transported to the station for a breathalyzer test. The 25-year-old man was charged with impaired driving with a blood alcohol level greater than 80 mgs.

Another arrest was made a day earlier, Nov. 26 in Milton. A citizen reported a vehicle travelling erratically. Police located the vehicle parked in a nearby lot, a short time later. There, officers say they observed a man slumped over in the driver's seat with the keys still in the ignition. After numerous attempts to rouse the 39-year-old man, he woke up and was instructed to exit the vehicle.

Police allege the driver displayed multiple signs of impairment. A breathalyzer test indicated he had a blood alcohol concentration of more than 3.5 times the legal limit. He faces a charge of care and control while impaired and care and control with a blood alcohol level greater than 80 mgs.

A third arrest was made Monday (Nov. 29) in Burlington. Police received numerous calls reporting a vehicle had struck a fence and been driven away.

Police say the vehicle was located a short distance away and the driver was arrested for impaired driving. The 26-year-old driver was alleged to have a blood alcohol concentration 1.5 times the legal limit. He faces a charge of impaired driving with a blood alcohol level greater than 80 mgs.

Halton police remind people officers will continue to respond to impaired driving incidents across the region.

Signs of an impaired driver may include:

- A vehicle moving too fast, too slow or that fluctuates greatly in speed;
- A vehicle being driven erratically or that is not maintaining its lane;
- A vehicle whose driver blatantly disregards traffic signals or other rules of the road.

Residents are encouraged to call 911 if they suspect a driver may be impaired.
