Holiday Specials at Fallbrook Trail Ranch

It's the perfect time to share the gift of good health with your family & friends with a gift like this - specially wrapped for you. While you're at it - don't forget to treat yourself!

q05.877.077W

onst tut . o

GIFT GUIDE theifp.ca

These gifts will warm the heart

Chances are good you re buying gifts on a budget this year or, frankly, there are people on your list you re only willing to spend $25 on. Here are some fun, quirky ideas sure to hit the mark.

Cozy toque

When the temperature dips, the toques come out. This expression hat perfectly sums up winter in Toronto: Freeeezing! It ll match any winter coat and in a wool/nylon/viscose blend in other words, it s not itchy, $24.50. Available atchapters.indigo.ca or in Indigo stores.

Raccoon sparkle

Give someone a trash panda ornament in honour of the Star s favourite rescued raccoon, Scoop. This beaded ornament depicting Toronto s unofficial mascot is $15 at the Drake General Store and its online home, www.drakegeneralstore.ca

Trendy teapot

The lizzy royal purple teapot is the perfect mix of trendy and traditional for the tea lover on your list. It s made of porcelain coated in

330 Guelph St

Georgetown

touchable purple silicone, $22.95. Available at www.cb2.com and CB2 stores.

Running buddy

If you know a running junkie, give them this personal item SPIbelt belt to hold knick-knacks like keys and lip balm when they re out for a jog. Bonus: it s not a fanny pack, $23. Available at mec.ca or Mountain Equipment Co-op stores.

A wild toolkit

Give someone an entire zoo with this handy and charming animal multi tool by Kikkerland. Heads up: it does include a small knife, so think twice before gifting this to kids. These go for $19.99 at Northwood General Store on Bloor St. W. and www. northwoodgeneral.ca

Keep it salty

For a classy kitchen touch, give someone this French kitchen marble salt cellar. It s neutral enough to match any decor, so no need to visit first to find out their colour palate, $24.95. Available at www.crateandbarrel.com and Crate and Barrel stores.

opposite Canadian Tire

www.millersscottishbakery.com

INSTITUTE FOR ORS