Georgetown's Michael Luskey (left) and good friend Joseph Krupicz from Mississauga have had an agreement for the past two decades that they'd split any lottery winnings exceeding $1,000 and they've now got big plans for what to do with $500,000 apiece.

Million-dollar winner in Georgetown

Michael Luskey of Georgetown and Joseph Krupicz of Mississauga said yes to ENCORE and will share $1 million.

The pair matched all seven winning numbers on their ENCORE selection for the Dec. 9 LOTTO MAX draw.

We've been best friends since we were 17, shared Luskey and Krupicz while at the OLG Prize Centre in Toronto, where they picked up their winnings.

We've been playing the lottery as a group for over 20 years, added Luskey.

After dropping his daughter off at daycare, Luskey went to the store to check the winning ticket.

I used the ticket checker and saw the words, Big Winner flash on the screen. I kept scanning it again and again. At first I thought the machine said I won $1,000. When I realized it was a million I checked again. I put the ticket in my pocket and left the store. Joseph and I have had an agreement that if we win anything over $1,000, we split it. I told Joseph to come to my house so I could share the good news.

That evening, Joseph arrived at Michael's home. I presented Joseph with an envelope. The winning ticket was inside. Krupicz added, I've had this feeling in my stomach since I found out. I don't think I'm getting sick but I'm pretty sure I'm still in shock, he laughed.

Plans are already underway for the windfall. Luskey wants to pay off his car and give some thought to making an investment.

I won't be rushing into anything.

As for Krupicz, I will probably invest most of my portion of the win. I will also be getting some winter tires. This win gives me the freedom to travel more. I have a sister in England. Now I will be able to see her more often.

The winning ticket was purchased at an Esso station on Dixie Rd. in Mississauga.
