

Silas selected for Canadian camp

Fourth-year University of Waterloo Warriors defenceman Stephen Silas is one of 40 players vying for a spot on the Canadian men's hockey team slated to play at the Winter Universiade in Almaty, Kazakhstan from Jan. 25-Feb. 10.

The Georgetown native was named to the roster for training camp Dec. 27-30 at the Teen Ranch in Caledon, as Ontario University Athletics is representing Canada at the 2017 event.

Twenty-four-year-old Silas holds the all-time games-played record for the former Belleville Bulls of the Ontario Hockey League at 324 over five full seasons (2008-13), missing just a handful of starts due to injury.

Not surprisingly, the 6-foot-1, 210-pound fourth-round draft pick of the Colorado Avalanche in 2010 has yet to miss a single game for Waterloo over four years and the legal studies major anchors the defence with four goals and four assists in this season for the 5-8-3 Warriors.

Canada's final 22-man roster is expected to be announced in early January.

TEAM OF THE WEEK: Members of the Halton Hills novice additional entry rep Thunder dropped off a large load of new unwrapped toys at the Halton Hills Fire Department's headquarters last week that had been collected by their families. The HHFD in turn brought the donated items to the Salvation Army. Team members (front, from left) are: Alex Lockwood, Connor Ward, Nathan Bowles, Troy MacDonald, Maverick Felice. Middle row: Brent Hiebert, Curtis Reid, Lucas Buker, Jack Westover, Brady Cutmore, Fraser Drinkwater, Matthew Swannell, Aidan Luxmore, Sam Behara, Holden Evans-Stamp, Jackson LeBlanc. Back row: Head coach Kevin Felice, assistant coach Jamie Bowles, firefighters Peter Faria, Mark Bailey, chief John deHooze, firefighters Rob DiRuscio, Kevin Usher, assistant coach Kevin Ward, trainer Wendy Reid, manager Jake Westover. Absent: Nicholas Trichilo. Submitted photo
