

New look, same great content

Your local newspaper has a fresh, new look this week as Metroland Media embarks on a redesign for its community papers, province-wide. The move helps identify our newspapers as being part of a media family driven by the need to serve our readers and connect with the community. Our look may have changed, but inside you'll find the same quality content you've come to expect from your local Metroland Media newspaper.

Milton teen charged in New Year's house-party stabbing

A Milton youth faces a number of charges in connection with a New Year's house-party stabbing in Milton.

At 2:37 a.m. Sunday (Jan. 1), police and paramedics were dispatched to a Davis Lane residence, where they found three males who had been involved in an altercation and suffered injuries.

One victim was stabbed in the abdomen, but was expected to make a full recovery. A second male had a non-life threatening stab wound to his chest and was treated and released. A third male was taken to hospital as a precaution and later released.

Police say that a youth had been kicked out of the party earlier after his romantic advances toward another partygoer were rejected.
