Three Haltonites join Order of Canada

According to the biography on his website, Braun a baritone like his father is currently playing the title role in the Canadian Opera Company's new production of Louis Riel at the Four Seasons Centre in Toronto. He will also perform with the National Arts Centre Orchestra in Ottawa as part of Canada's 150th anniversary.

Schade is another very well-known Canadian tenor and operatic performer. Topping his impressive list of accomplishments, Schade won a Grammy Award in 2002 for Best Choral Performance for his recording of Johann Sebastian Bach's St. Matthew Passion.

The 51-year-old lives in Oakville with his partner Dee McKee and their eight children.

Fellow Oakvillian, Morrissette, has been a leader in Canadian Business for decades and currently serves as founding president and CEO of Pelmorex Media Inc.

The 69-year-old Morrissette graduated from the Ivey Business School at Western University and started his career in the commercial banking industry with the Royal Bank in 1972.

According to his LinkedIn profile, by 1983, he had already risen to President and CEO of Canadian Satellite Communications Inc. and later founded Pelmorex Media in 1989.

Pelmorex is a consumer weather services company and corporate parent to successful brands such as the Weather Network, MétéoMédia and el tiempo.es.

According to Johnston's announcement, Order of Canada appointments are usually announced twice per year around July's annual Canada Day celebrations and again at the end of December.

Last Friday's announcement saw a total of 100 more names added to the Order of Canada ranks.

Let's be inspired by the examples set by these remarkable Canadians and use this occasion to build a smarter and more caring country in which every individual can succeed to the greatest extent possible, said Johnston.
