Rockwood resident selected for elite Ontario sledge hockey team

By: Mark Thomsen

Congratulations are in order for 18 year old Jacob Ribble of Rockwood. Now a 1st year student at Laurier University, he was selected to be part of Sledge Team Ontario (STO) as a Forward/Goaltender from his home team the Kitchener Sidewinders.

Jacob was born with Cerebral Palsy, which prevents him from playing regular hockey, so he got involved with sledge hockey at the age of eight. All STO players have a lower body disability, and in the game they are strapped to a two-bladed sledge. They propel themselves with sticks spiked at one end and curved blades at the other for shooting. Jacob indicated that it is basically the same physical game as stand up ice hockey, except for no "t-boning" (hitting players at a 90-degree angle on your sled).

When asked how he felt about being selected for this elite team, Jacob said, "It's a great honour." He also said that the association is trying to grow the sport so that ultimately everyone can play hockey, whether or not they're able to physically skate.

More information on the league and standings can be found at www.ontariosledge.com.
