Saturday concert to benefit CLNH

Some local musicians and St. Alban the Martyr Anglican Church have stepped up to organize a charity concert to help with the purchase a new wheelchair-accessible van for Community Living North Halton.

The concert is slated to take place this Saturday beginning at 7 p.m. in the St. Alban's Church Hall, located at 537 Main St. in Glen Williams.

Set to perform are members of Main Street The Band featuring Bill McBride, Ian Maddix and Richard Ebbs, along with supporting sets from James Woodstock, Bob Gee and Ian Jarvie.

Fr. Aaron Orear of St. Alban's is asking that patrons make a free-will offering to contribute to the Help Get Our Motor Running fundraising campaign.

CLNH started up a Canadahelps.org fundraising page in early December to offset the cost of a van to replace one of the organization's five vehicles, a 2006 Chevrolet Uplander, that has no heat and is in need of repairs, said Linda Hunt, the community partnership co-ordinator.

The estimated cost of a new vehicle is estimated at $70,000 and so far approximately $2,800 has been generated.

For anyone who can't attend the concert but would like to contribute, visit <https://www.canadahelps.org/en/pages/help-get-our-motor-running/>
