

Acton High School drama club showcasing four new shows

Four great shows, a fantastic atmosphere and the best night out this side of Fairy Lake is waiting for you at Acton High School.

For the past two months, Acton High's senior drama class has been working hard to bring the stories of four colourfully comedic plays to life.

No two ways about it, there's something for everyone in this laugh-filled spectacular.

From Herb Hasler's The Accident, Accused of Comedy by Carl Williams, The Sure Thing by David Ives and Play Date

With Fungo from Acton's own, the talented Ellis Wile.

Having embraced a community-first mindset, these students are eager to showcase their dedication and passion.

Stop by on Tuesday, Jan. 24 at 7 p.m. (doors open at 6:40 p.m.) in Acton High's Drama Room, where tickets will be $5 at the door. As always, the continuing betterment of the Acton and school communities are at the forefront of any artistic endeavour, as all proceeds will be going to the school's Me to We Club and Sears Drama Festival entry.
