Shop local and find the perfect wedding gown

Elizabeth's Fashions and Bridal Boutique has been helping brides find the perfect gown for their big day for more than 35 years.

The bridal and fashion boutique is located in quaint and historic downtown Georgetown. Elizabeth's has just moved to a bright and beautiful new space to better serve both their boutique and bridal customers.

The staff will provide you with highly personalized service second to none and offer you a wealth of experience in the bridal and fashion industry.

The atmosphere at Elizabeth's is very warm and relaxed. The knowledge and professionalism they offer will make the shopping experience fun and enjoyable for all involved. High-pressure sales tactics are not what you will receive when dealing with Elizabeth's. Bridal parties are welcome to drop in and take a peek around the shop to see the large selection of bridal gowns and formal wear.

Elizabeth's does like to remind customers that evenings and Saturdays from January to March are the busiest times. Appointments are encouraged so all clients receive the best possible service.

All brides are welcomed with a quick tour of the salon before getting down to the important business of selecting the perfect gown.

Purchasing your bridal gown is an experience that should be simple yet memorable and fun.

The shopping day is an intimate time shared by mothers and/or fathers and their daughters. Sometimes it is the sisters or bridesmaids with the excited bride-to-be. The boutique you choose to shop in should be an atmosphere where you feel welcome and at home, places where you are at ease to express your feelings about what you like and dislike in a particular style or gown. The staff must be knowledgeable about each and every designer featured at their boutique
