Twisters really good at BAD tourney

North Halton's novice C Twisters' defensive efforts at this past weekend's BAD (Belmont, Aylmer, Dorchester) Girls Hockey Tournament were anything but.

North Halton surrendered just two goals throughout the weekend, the latter in the championship with Saffyre Flood netting her sixth goal of the tournament to clinch a 2-1 shootout victory over the Chatham Outlaws.

Sharing the spotlight was Sarah Cation, who turned back all three shootout attempts.

She and Brenna Kalbarski's near flawless net-minding was supported by formidable defence from the entire blueline, including Allison Sinclair, Cassandra Randell, Gabriella Petrusa, Emily Morrison, Lucy Jennings and Courtney Duff.

Alannah McIntyre notched the Twisters' first goal in the final, while Sophie Thomas (2G, A) and Ava Lounsbury (G, 2A) stood out with three points each en route to the championship.

Randell, Petrusa and Sinclair scored one goal each at the BAD tourney.

Sarah Grozdanovski recorded two assists in the championship run, with Alex Janjevich, Makayla Hillock, Adrienne Fernandez and Kaedyn Oliver had one apiece. The team's coaching staff consists of Bryan Krafczek, Lindsay Oliver and Carrie Gallant.
