GLT hosts Expecting the Worst

Get ready to Laugh Local! Georgetown Little Theatre's second show in its 56th season, honouring Canada 150, is a howling Canadian farce, Expecting the Worst, by Robert Ainsworth.

Contrary to the title, the show is not about the new U.S. President. The synopsis: when Max's girlfriend throws him out, he begs his friend Steve to stay at his place for two weeks. What starts out as a joke on Steve by Max putting on a wig and dress, turns into the first of many mistaken identities. The hysterics start when Steve's mother visits from England, wanting to meet her new daughter-in-law, Susie, who does not exist. With the help of Steve's friend Patricia, the daughter-in-law ruse is maintained until Max's girlfriend finds out she is pregnant and Steve's ex-girlfriend, the real Susie, shows up pregnant.

See what lengths Steve, Max and Patricia will go to keep all this from Steve's mother.
