

WALKING FOR A CAUSE: Students at St. Francis of Assisi Elementary School in Georgetown participated in the Canada-wide Winter Walk to School Day last week as part of an initiative that encourages people to make choices that will decrease negative impacts on our planet. It was the first time that St. Francis took part in the Winter Walk after the school's ME to WE Club organized the event. Students received a sticker and a carton of chocolate milk for participating and those who took the bus or received a ride to school walked the perimeter of the playground until the start of classes. Here, from left are: Brianna Vergari, Abby Vergari, Jenna Morris, Stephanie Offidani, Bethany Reitzel and Olivia Farmiloe.
