A ROARING SUCCESS: Father Aaron Orear of St. Alban the Martyr Anglican Church in Glen Williams presents a cheque with the proceeds from a recent fundraising concert worth nearly $2,800 to Linda Hunt, community partnership co-ordinator of Community Living North Halton. Also in the photo are CLNH clients Misty Pritchett (left) and Nancy Garrison. A capacity crowd of more than 100 people turned out for the benefit concert in the St. Alban community hall featuring newly formed Main Street The Band. The Get Our Motor Running fundraising campaign has surpassed the $8,000 mark following the benefit concert. Faced with the imminent demise of one of the wheelchair-accessible vans used to shuttle CLNH clients around, the organization sent out a public plea late last year for donations to help offset the estimated cost of $70,000 to replace the worn-down vehicle. Father Orear and Main Street The Band decided to organize the concert on Jan. 21, which included a $750 donation from St. Alban's. It's not too late to contribute to the cause.
