Ninth-annual Pink Pajama Party raises over $12,000 for charities

Approximately 400 women took over the Nashville North nightclub in Norval recently for the ninth-annual Our Sister's Pink Pajama Party, raising more than $12,000 for a pair of cancer-related charities.

Hosted by Georgetown residents Julie

Liddle, Lori Martin and Alyson Findlay, the funds raised will be split between the Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation and Cancer Assistance Services Halton Hills.

CHUM FM's Tom Jokic provided the music for the dancing patrons.
