34-year-old man dead after car slams into parked front-end loader

A 34-year-old man died after his vehicle slammed into a front-end loader parked on a Campbellville property Monday.

Halton Regional Police say that shortly after 3 p.m., a 2012 Infinity was west-bound on Reid Side Rd. As the vehicle reached a T-intersection at Twiss Rd., it continued through on a private driveway.

Parked on the driveway was an unoccupied front-end loader.

The Infinity struck the rear of the front-end loader and the driver of the SUV was killed instantly.

Anyone with information about the crash is asked to call the Collision Reconstruction Unit at 905-878-5511, ext. 5065.
