Heroes Welcome Day

Wednesday, Feb. 22, 2017

Automobiles of all kinds have been crucial tools to emergency responders and armed forces personnel across the country.

On Wednesday, Feb. 22, the 2017 Canadian International AutoShow is hosting Heroes Welcome Day, honouring and celebrating the police officers, firefighters, paramedics and armed forces personnel with a special discounted ticket offer. On Heroes Welcome Day, representatives of each of the respective emergency services will be on hand to meet members of the public. A selection of their vehicles will be showcased outside the MTCC South Building's entrance for kids and adults alike to see up close. If you are a service member, please contact dianac@autoshow.ca for the Heroes Welcome ticket rate.

Castrol Alley Featuring Legendary Motorcar Company

The Golden Age of North American auto manufacturing was highlighted by the muscle car. Ontario's own Legendary Motorcar Company will celebrate the beasts from the '60s and '70s in Castrol Alley on level 700 in the South Building. Displaying the finest and most sought after performance cars from
