SOCK POWER: The Me to We Club at St. Francis of Assisi Elementary School in Georgetown undertook a sock drive recently for the homeless in Toronto and the collection was dropped off in the Moss Park area last Saturday by staff members and parents. Close to 500 pairs of socks for men, women and children were collected by St. Francis students and were distributed along with 150 winning Tim Hortons Roll-up-the Rim tabs and some gift card donations. Actons St. Josephs Elementary School's Social Justice Club also took part in the drive, picking up 660 pairs of socks from the school community and 67 winning Tims tabs. About 300 pairs of socks and some toques that were left over will be distributed to those in need in Halton Hills.
