Monarchs tripped up by Paris

The offence dried up at the worst possible time for the Toronto Monarchs Saturday in their Arena Lacrosse League contest in Paris.

Leading 13-11 heading into the fourth quarter, the Monarchs were stung by six unanswered goals from the host RiverWolves and lost 17-13.

Jordan Critch (4), Jordan Dance (3), Dustin Caravello (2), Seth Laidlaw, Reed Board, Mike

Teeter and Tyler Ferreira scored for the Monarchs and Luke Laidlaw collected four assists.

Former Halton Hills Jr. B Bulldog Mike Burke led the RiverWolves attack, picking up four goals and five assists.

The 4-5 Monarchs, consisting of several Halton Hills residents, will play host to the 5-3 Oshawa Outlaws Saturday at the Toronto Rock Athletic Centre in Oakville at 2 p.m.
