Georgetown Lions Club gives library $5,000

Halton Hills Public Library recently announced it has received a $5,000 donation from the Lions Club of Georgetown.

The funds complete a $25,000 commitment begun five years ago to enhance the Children's Programming Rooms at the library's Georgetown branch.

As members of the Georgetown Lions Club, we are very proud to present the final payment of $5,000 to sponsor the Lions Club of Georgetown Children's Programming Rooms at the Halton Hills Library Georgetown Branch. We are especially excited to be here on Family Day, and see so many families enjoying the rooms and bonding together, said Grant Harris, outgoing president.

Each day, the Children's Programming Rooms are alive with singing, storytelling and creativity.

They are among the busiest areas of the library, with hundreds of kids participating in a variety of programming throughout the year.

These programs instill a love of reading in children during the formative years; they experience reading as a joy that develops naturally into an invaluable life-long skill.
