

THE CANADIAN TOUR: A group of 120 women and their young children — all newcomers to Canada — spent the morning of March 6 at the Sugarbush Maple Syrup Festival at the Terra Cotta Conservation Area, where they learned about the rich history of maple syrup production in Canada. The women were adult students from the Language Instruction for Newcomers (LINC) program offered by the Afghan Women's Organization. Eighty per cent were Syrian refugees who arrived in Canada in 2016. Here, Ashoo Anand, senior co-ordinator for CVC's Multicultural Outreach Program, leads students through the park as they learn about maple syrup through the ages.
