St. Patrick's Day walk for Georgetown Hospital

Reports of a band of approximately 40 leprechauns marching down Main St. in Georgetown early last Friday afternoon turned out to be true as their annual Walk for a Cause raised funds for the Georgetown Hospital Foundation.

The group had already raised just under $1,000 by 1 p.m. and only three of the walking tours 11 establishments had been visited.

Sunny and warm conditions greeted the walkers, who've made it a tradition to spend St. Patrick's Day celebrating everything green for the past five years.

Money was raised through a $10 entry fee, raffle tickets and selling trinkets.
