GLIC hosts spring show this weekend

Every year, Georgetown Little Improv Club (GLIC) celebrates the return of spring with its patented brand of improv comedy. No show is ever the same as the last show.

GLIC is officially celebrating nine years this year, meaning next year is its 10th anniversary!

Recently, Pam C and Kajer B, as Eyeball Soup, made it to the second round of the World's Biggest Improv Tournament in Toronto, holding their own against some big names (in improv comedy.)

The GLIC format is always a mix of short comedy games and longer improvised scenes, but you never know what you may get. Every scene is based on your suggestion! This is YOUR chance to call the shots.

GLIC's next show is Saturday, March 25 at 8 p.m. The GLT Studio (33 Stewarttown Road) can only hold so many people, so book your seat now by calling 905-877-3422. Check out the new GLT website at georgetownlittletheatre.ca for more info on GLIC and the GLT.

Tickets are $5 or an item for the local food bank.
