Why is it Important to be an Employer of Choice?

CCEOC Announces First Halton Employer of Choice Award

Just hearing the phrase, Employer of Choice, you may think of a few companies including YouTube, Google and Apple. Forward thinking companies understand that being recognized as a top employer is a crucial factor in finding new talent.

Becoming an employer of choice is essential in today's increasingly tight labour market. A study done by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce found that while executives cited the need to attract good people as one of their top priorities, they also said that, Gaining loyalty is a challenge. Retention and investing in people are key.

Recently, a new program has been established to help businesses located in the Halton region in this regard. The CORPORATE CULTURE & EMPLOYER OF CHOICE RECOGNITION

(CCEOC) recently announced the kick-off of the Halton Employer of Choice Award. This award provides top local area businesses the opportunity to get the recognition they deserve and promote a preferred employer brand in their communities.
