Police seek help to identify suspects accused of using stolen credit card

Halton police are asking for the public's assistance in identifying two suspects wanted for allegedly using a credit card stolen from a car in a Halton Hills driveway.

In a release, police said on March 28, the two suspects allegedly attended an address in Halton Hills and stole a wallet from a vehicle parked in the driveway. The suspects then allegedly made several unauthorized purchases with a credit card from the wallet at two Georgetown gas stations.

The first suspect is described as male, south Asian, 18-25 years old, 5-foot-7 to 5-foot-9 in height and weighing approximately 140-160 pounds with brown hair and glasses.

He was wearing a black shirt and black Adidas pants with a white stripe.

Suspect two is described as male, black, 18-25 years old, 5-foot-10 to 6-foot-1, 160-180 pounds with short brown hair. He was wearing a black Adidas track jacket with white stripes, black jogging pants with red/white stripes, a gray hooded sweater and a red and white toque.

Police added the suspects were driving a 2007 Toyota Corolla. Both men are wanted for Theft Under $5,000 and Possession of Property Obtained by Crime.
