

YOU AND YOUR PET

UCHS Mac could be the boy for you

By Judith-Anne Kolu

A family who has a resident high-energy dog that would aid in teaching Mac the ropes and be there as a companion would be an added plus.

If you are reading this and feel you would like to be the family for Mac please call the shelter at 519-833-2287 or e.mail info@uppercredit.com to meet this lively boy.

with their toys or participating in games with people, but snuggling on the couch beside their foster family remains their favourite activity.

Sydney and Jasmine are on a weight-loss diet and are more active since they came to us, which is producing positive results.

The siblings would thrive in a quiet home with patient people who understand they will need time to gain confidence and settle in. Sydney, Jasmine and Tiger Lily will be available for adoption at Pet Valu 375 Mountainview Rd. S. from 2-4 p.m. The $160 cash adoption fee includes parasite treatment, spay/neuter, microchip and a bag of food. For more information visit www.NHKR.ca or call Barb 905-873-8547.

Sydney and Jasmine were adopted from NHKR four years ago when they were kittens. Unfortunately their family's situation changed and the cats were surrendered back to NHKR. Sydney and Jasmine have never been separated and need to be adopted together.

The siblings are gentle, quiet cats, timid with strangers, but once comfortable they are affectionate, happy cats. Sydney and Jasmine know their names and come running when called, especially if chin scratches are offered. They enjoy playing together, playing
