

Thank a volunteer April 23-29

April 23-29 is National Volunteer Week.

It is also the 14th-consecutive year that Volunteer Canada delivers the National Volunteer Week (NVW) campaign in partnership with Investors Group.

Thank you Canadian volunteers, for 150 glorious years.

In 2017, volunteering comes in many forms and is as diverse as Canada itself.

Someone who shovels their neighbour's laneway or who brings a lost pet to the animal shelter is helping to build a stronger community. Sometimes we miss recognizing these people as volunteers, because they do not occupy a formal role within an organization or group.

To celebrate all volunteers and to get you thinking more deeply about volunteering, during NVW, Volunteer Canada will release a series of crossword puzzles that reveal the impacts, benefits and diverse ways Canadians are involved in communities. Some answers may be obvious, while others may cause you to stop and say: Volunteering, Eh?

However you recognize volunteering in 2017, one thing remains timeless and that is volunteer efforts create positive impact in communities across Canada.

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK

APRIL 23 - 29, 2017

Mayor's Volunteer Thank You Message

This year's theme of a crossword puzzle speaks to the inter-connectivity of the role that volunteers play in supporting the quality of life that we all enjoy in Halton Hills. It is truly inspiring to realize that in the municipality alone, there are over 400 people who give freely of their time and talents. Volunteers are the lifeblood of our community and National Volunteer Week – April 23 to 29 is an appropriate time to pause and reflect on the very valuable contributions performed each and every day.

The Town of Halton Hills Council and staff would like to extend their sincere thanks to all our volunteers! Thank you for your time, energy and compassion. Thank you too, for making our community healthier, strengthening our organizations, mentoring our children and creating a more resilient and inclusive society.

Let's celebrate the volunteers among us who enrich our lives and our community. Volunteers are a big part of what makes life so special in Halton Hills and serve as the best demonstration of "Small Town Living at Its Best!"

Sincerely,

Mayor Rick Bonnette
