Canadian musician's tour coming to Acton

Fred Eaglesmith's history of playing music as a traveling independent musician could be described as songwriting in motion.

Eaglesmith is a veteran of the music industry, and at the same time is about as far away from actually participating in today's music industry as one could be.

Never operating within anyone's boundaries, he continues to set the standard for independent artists everywhere.

Eaglesmith has spent 42 years on the road, has 22 studio albums, five different band configurations, and 15 band members. He has a new album, entitled Standard, and Eaglesmith and his wife, Tif Ginn, tour North America almost continuously.

Eaglesmith and Ginn will be performing this Friday April 21, at 8 p.m. at Roxy Café Theatre, 6 Mill St. E., Acton.

Advance tickets are for sale online at www.fredeaglesmith.com and tickets will also be available at the door. (Advance tickets are $25 for regular shows, $30 at door.)

Q What happens if I don't pay my mortgage?

A A mortgage is a loan that is secured by the property being financed. If you fail to make the required payments, the lender has the right to foreclose on the property. This means they can take the property away from you and sell it to pay off the loan. It is important to understand the terms of your mortgage and to make payments on time to avoid this situation.
