

Tickets still available for Alia fashion show

By Florence Riehl

Hillsview Active Living Centre-Georgetown

to pass along sincere thanks to Terri, Sherry, Heather, Wendy, and Michelle for all the planning and set up that went into making this event a success. We also thank Kim who remained behind to keep the home fires burning.

On Saturday, April 22 the Centre held a carpet bowling competition. Congratulations to the Acton Bowlers who took first place. Second place went to Oakville and third place to Georgetown.

This coming Monday, May 8 is your chance to come out to see the latest in spring and summer fashions from Alia and Northern Reflections. Tickets are still available. Light refreshments will be available along with a 50/50 draw.

There will be three presentations by Home Instead. The three topics to be discussed will be Preventing Senior Hospitalizations on May 9, Understanding Alzheimers on May 10 and Preventing Seniors Fraud on May 11. There is no cost for these sessions. They will run from 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

On Friday, May 12 Alert/Best Nursing Care

will be hosting an Older Adults Wellness Fair at our Centre running from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. This free event is open to everyone and is an opportunity for you to obtain information on services available to you through various agencies, non-profit organizations and just for you goods and services.

T.I.M.E. (Together in Movement and Exercise) is offering an exercise program for people who have balance and mobility problems. It will be an 8-week course beginning May 1 to June 26. For more information please see page 10 of the new Hillsview.

What a party! Great company, great food served by The Town of Halton Hills Councillors, great entertainment supplied by the renowned juggler Bob Cates, a great representation of the Volunteers of Acton and Georgetown Hillsview Active Living Centres.

On behalf of the volunteers who were present and those unable to attend I would like

Bring in baked goods for Mother's Day luncheon table

By Julie Conroy

Hillsview Active Living Centre- Acton

The latest copies of Hillsview are at the reception desk. Pick up your copy the next time you are in. We have lots of new activities planned over the next four months.

On April 25, 140 volunteers were recognized from both Hillsview Active Living Centres at the Gellert Community Centre. Mayor Rick Bonnette welcomed everyone and said that without the volunteers many programs and activities would not be possible. Town councillors helped serve a delicious lunch. Everyone received a complimentary book thanks to the generosity of Stricker Books. The coffee was donated by McDonald's and the ice cream from Chapman's and Giant Tiger. Heather Beaumont was the emcee and Terry Forbes, Wendy Krever, and Sherry Mitchell all helped with the event. Following lunch we were entertained by Bob Cates Comedy in Motion.

Did you know that you can now roller blade, or roller skate in the Acton Arena and Community Centre on Monday, Wednesday or Friday mornings from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Still feeling energetic? Pickleball started on May 3. These activities will be held on the Harold Townsley Rink, rink A.

Five bid euchre players had mooners last Thursday. Frances Hogenbirk, Shirley Hunter, Mark Gareau, Cheryl Savage, and Betty Brewer.

With all the talk about the rising price of houses and whether you should sell or move, your questions and many more will be answered on May 9 at 1 p.m. when a team of local professionals will be at the Centre offering advice on making these difficult decisions.

Before Easter I left my rain coat in the cloakroom at the Centre. When I looked for it the following week it wasn't there but there is a Northern Reflections coat. Did you take the wrong one by mistake? If so, please return it and take the correct one.

Ladies (and men), please don't forget that we always need baking for the bake table at the Mother's Day Luncheon on May 13. We get a great selection of baked goods that sell out quickly so please take the time to bake something.

There is a computer workshop on Windows on May 11 at 10 a.m. If you are interested see staff to sign up. Spaces are limited.

The weekly 50/50 was not won again this week so the amount to be won next Friday should be around $230.
